

An Afternoon of Jazz with the Music of

Gregg Hill

Kerrytown Concert House

Ann Arbor

Sunday | October 1st | 4pm

An Afternoon of Jazz with the Music of Gregg Hill

Hill and Renowned Bandleaders Bring Original Jazz Series Debut to Ann Arbor

Native Michigan composer Gregg Hill uses jazz to create a musical story telling experiences. Building on two volumes of original compositions that span over 30 years, Hill and a talented group of jazz artists from Detroit, Ann Arbor, Kalamazoo and Lansing, will kick off a two-hour journey for the first time in Ann Arbor at 4pm on Sunday, October 1, 2017.

This show features the musical wizardry of two renowned bandleaders, Elden Kelly and Carl Cafagna. Creative in their own right, these masters of music bring their powerhouse bands for a double-header afternoon of live Jazz at the Kerrytown Concert House. Showcasing some of the most talented jazz artists from around the state, this event promises to be inspiring, engaging and entertaining.

Elden Kelly

Leslie DeShazor
Dwight Adams
Damon Warmack
Gayelynn McKinney

Carl Cafagna

Sven Anderson
Shannon Wade
Terry Kimura
Jesse Kramer

Seating is limited to reserve your tickets visit:

KerrytownConcertHouse.com

For more information visit:

Gregg Hill

GreggHilljazz.com

